

Across the Cultures Reception

This reception would be hosted by the students from other countries and cultures. Each table would have food from their native country and as students went to each table to sample the food, the student or students from that country would explain the food and share a few native customs or facts about their culture with them. If they had clothing that was representative of their culture, they should wear it and be ready to explain it.